PREFACE

Prior to the Bi-centennial of the United States, Texas established Historical Commissions in each county, charged with the responsibility of preserving county history.

In 1975, Mr. Charles Fisher, president of the Atascosito Historical Society, asked the compiler to chair the collection of cemetery records of the counties comprising the Atascosito-Liberty District of the Republic of Texas. With encouragement by the respective county commission chairmen, Mrs. Floyd (Villamae) Williams of Chambers County; Dr. and Mrs. Thurman Smith of Jasper County; Mrs. Earl (Pauline) Hines of Newton County; Mr. Fisher of Liberty County; Miss Joyce Calhoon of the Texas State Archives and Library, Liberty, Texas; and Mrs. Charles (Clare) Benckenstein, Jr., of Jefferson County, the following records have been surveyed by Mildred S. Wright:

CHAMBERS COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES (c) 1975

NEWTON COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES (c) 1975

JASPER COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES (c) 1976

LIBERTY COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 1 - West of the Trinity River (c) 1977

LIBERTY COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 2 - East of the Trinity River (c) 1978

HARDIN COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES (c) 1976 by the Southeast Texas Genealogical and Historical Society, c/o Tyrrell Historical Library, Beaumont, Texas

JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 1 - Oak Bluff Memorial Park, Port Neches, Texas (c) 1979

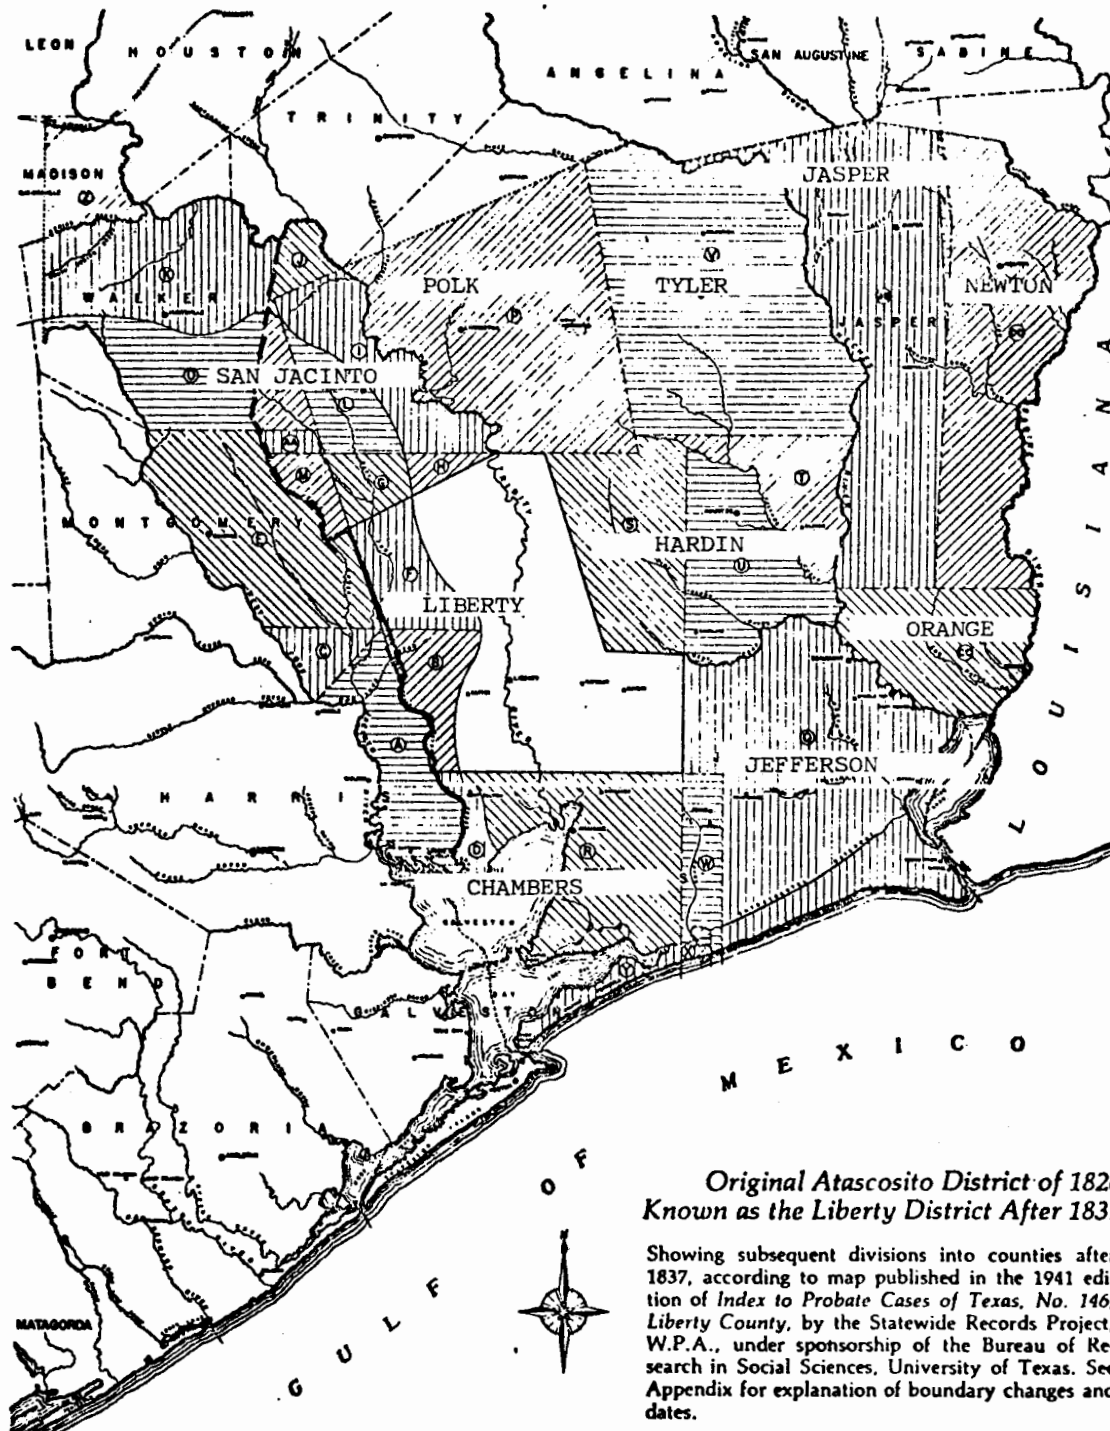

JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 2 - Calvary Catholic Cemetery (Port Arthur), Memory Gardens (mid county) and Live Oak Memorial Park, Viterbo

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Alexander of Orange, Texas compiled the records of Orange county, subsequently published by the Southeast Texas Genealogical and Historical Society as:

ORANGE COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 1 - Evergreen Cemetery

ORANGE COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 2

San Jacinto County Historical Commission published their cemetery records in 1977. CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS OF POLK COUNTY was published in 1976 by Mesdames Gwen Stewart Barber and Opal Wheeler Jackson. A survey of Tyler County was made ca 1969, and a copy deposited with the County Clerk and in the Shivers Library, Woodville, Texas.

INTRODUCTION

Jefferson County is located in southeast Texas, bounded on the east by the Neches River and on the south by the Gulf of Mexico. It was created in 1836. The soil ranges from grassy, timbered plains in the northwest to beach sands, sandy loams and black clay soils. Camping, hunting and fishing are prime recreational resources.

Rice accounts for most of the farm income with cattle and soybeans ranking 2nd and 3rd. Petrochemicals dominate the economy with chemical plants, refineries, oil field supplies leading. The Bethlehem Shipyard is a major builder of off-shore rigs. Port Arthur and Beaumont are major ports in Texas.

At the beginning of the 20th century, timber was the dominate factor in the economy. Many saw mill towns have disappeared, and the land given over to rice fields.

This book presents an overall survey of burial sites within Jefferson County, Texas with sources cited. The large cemeteries, i.e, Magnolia Cemetery and Forest Lawn Cemetery in Beaumont, Greenlawn-Johnson Cemeteries in Port Arthur, have not been physically surveyed as records are available.

Publication of surveys of cemeteries numbered 34-43 are being considered as possible Black History projects for the local high school history classes and are not included.

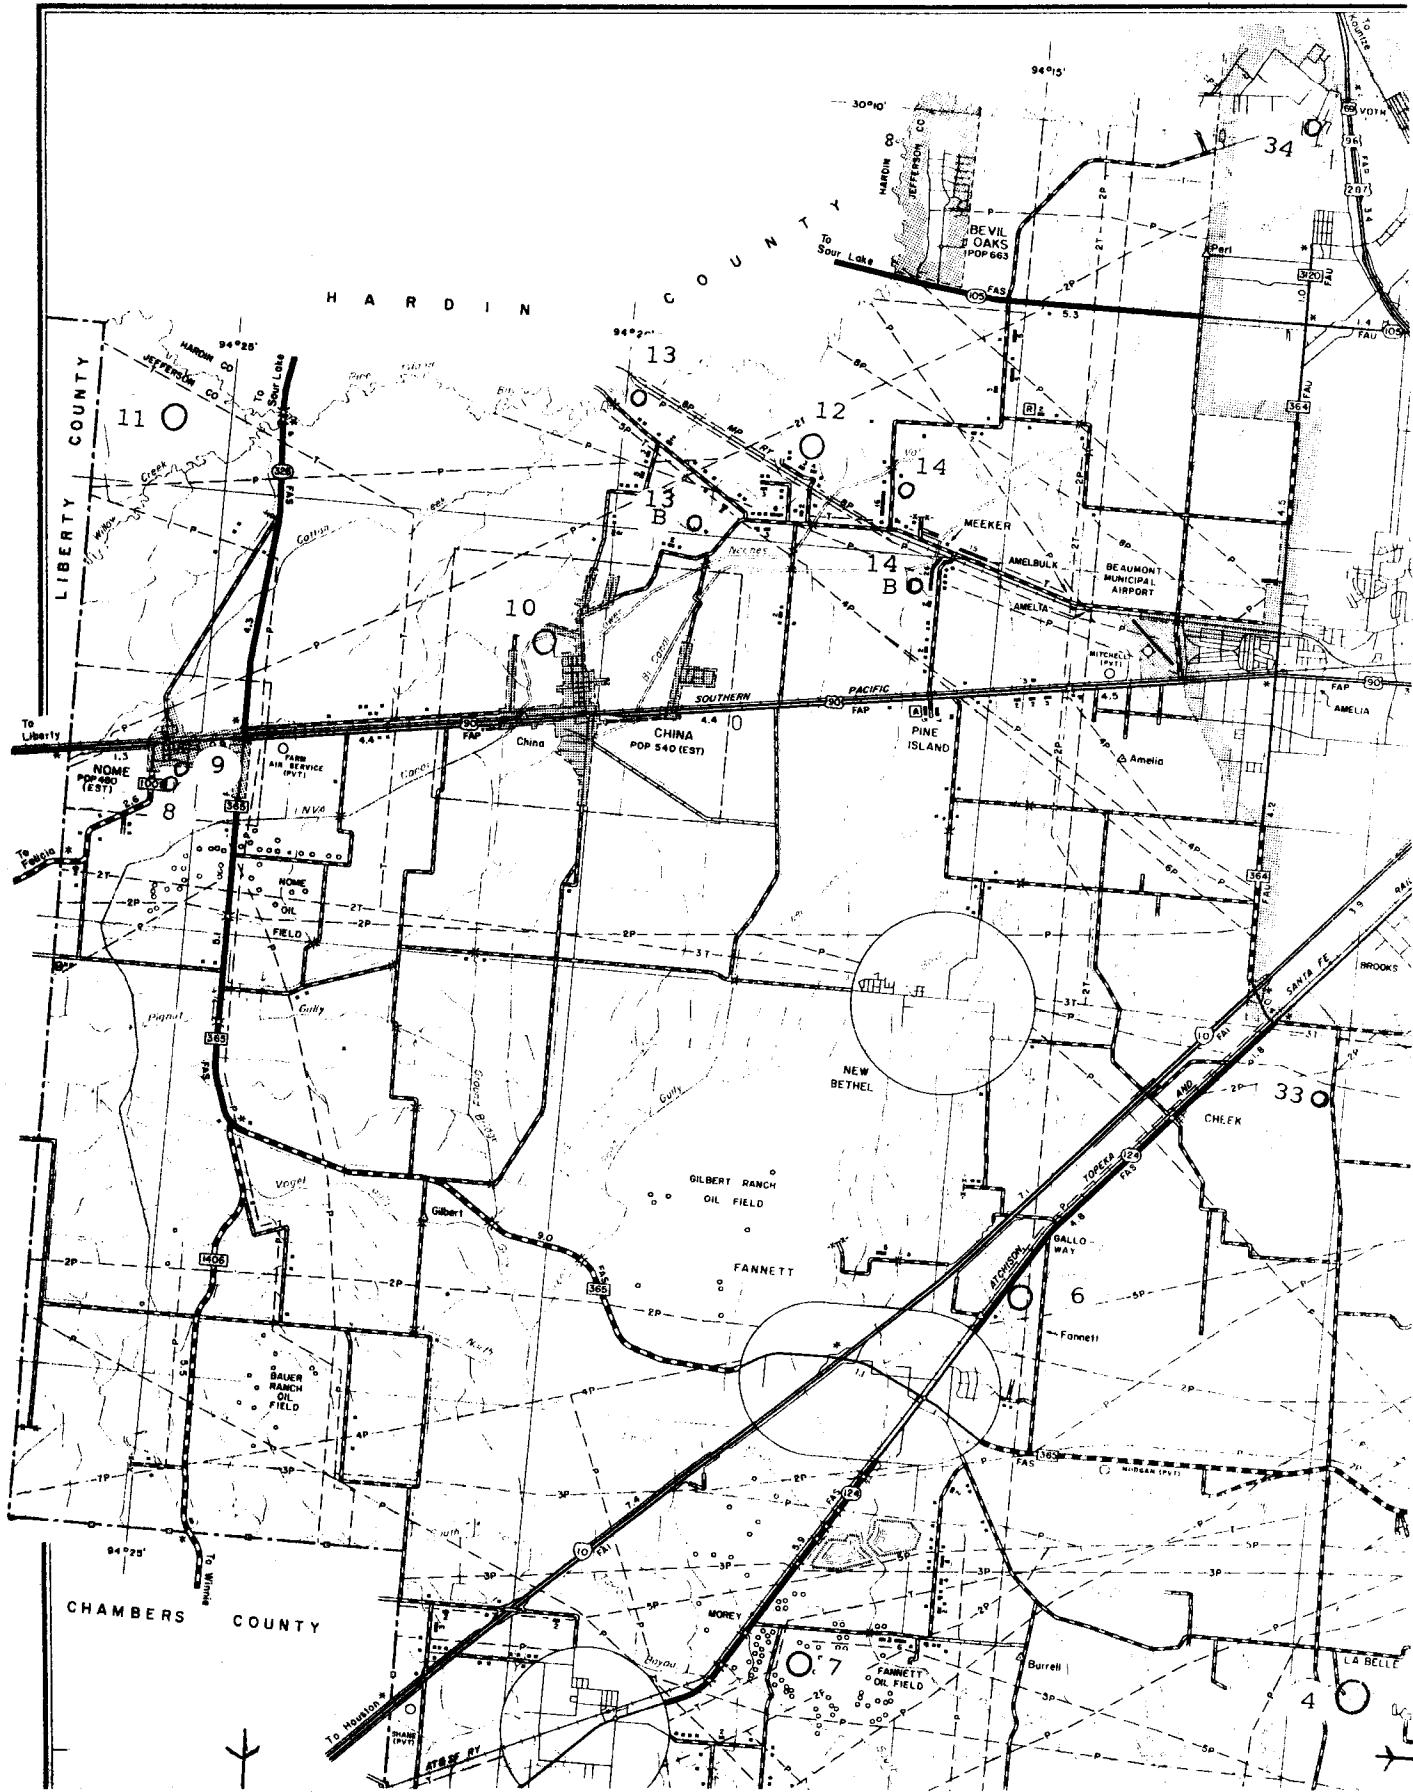

In using information, dates on stones may vary from other sources. If a stonecutter made a mistake, it was generally allowed to remain. Spelling may reflect family name changes.

Reasonable efforts have been made to eliminate errors on the part of the compiler. Surnames in quotes, as "Smith" indicate family markers.

South of Highway 87, near the tanks of Scurlock Oil Company, sometimes known as Pace Cemetery, in the early 1970's a boy scout troop cleaned this cemetery. Publicity given their project resulted in vandals visiting. However, two inventories had been made prior to the vandalizing, one published in YELLOWED PAGES, Vol. I, #2, of the Southeast Texas Genealogical and Historical Society, May 1971. An accompanying article by Mr. W. T. Block, Jefferson County historian, identified some unmarked burials. Mrs. Will (Rosine) Wilson of the Jefferson County Historical Commission had a second inventory that differed slightly from Mr. Block's records.

KNODELL, Lewis P. fenced, vandalized, legible: "energetic hunter and accomplished violinist" from Mrs. Wilson: "To the memory of the energetic hunter and accomplished violinist Lewis P. Knodell who in company with his true friend and schoolfellow Augs. 22. MAGNOLIA CEMETERY

2200 Pine Street
Beaumont, Texas

The 1925 Beaumont City Directory locates this cemetery as "east side of Collier's Ferry Road, between Caldwell and Spruce."

W.P.H.McFaddin deeded 2 1/2 acres in 1876 for a public cemetery. The Magnolia Cemetery Company was chartered in 1887, and Mr. McFaddin deeded an additional 13 acres to the company. Over the years additional acreage has been purchased and the cemetery now comprises 44 acres, on both sides of what is now named Pine Street, originally Collier's Ferry Road.

The early records of lot owners were kept, but not of each burial. Burial permits were not required until 1911. Strict burial records were not kept until 1929, when W. Clyde King became manager of the cemetery. Identifiable burials are now cross-indexed into the records, according to Mr. Billy King, current manager.

A brief history of the cemetery is given in the Beaumont Enterprise-Journal, January 18, 1981, Section G., page 1.

Defined areas within the cemetery are:

McFaddin Family Cemetery

IOOF #278, added 1915

White Citizens of Beaumont (indigent burials)

United Confederate Veterans (Beaumont Enterprise, Vol. 100, #69, January 13, 1981, page 1, col. 1)

23. FOREST LAWN CEMETERY

4955 Pine Street
Beaumont, Texas

Begun May, 1926, this cemetery has a total of 158 acres, only partially used at this time.

The records are cross indexed. Death certificates for burials here would be recorded with the proper authorities

April 4, 1979

Mrs. Zelma Wright

Beaumont, Texas 77707

Dear Mrs. Wright:

This is in response to your letter requesting our assistance in your Bi-centennial project.

We have thoroughly researched our records and the only location on Texaco's Port Arthur Plant property that gravesites might have existed is a three-acre tract which we purchased from the Evangelical Lutheran Trinity Congregation of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession of Port Arthur in 1922. This tract is along Savannah Avenue.

In preparing the site for storage tanks there were some bodies exhumed and transferred to another location at the church's direction. It is suggested that you contact the Trinity Lutheran Church for further information.

Sincerely,

JEFFERSON COUNTY, TEXAS CEMETERIES

Part 3

Addendum

This is not an up-date to tombstone inscriptions.

It does provide more information on neglected sites, restored sites, multiple names for some cemeteries, "lost" sites and new (created after publication) cemeteries.

Additional documentation and maps appear in the appendix.

JEFFERSON COUNTY TEXAS CEMETERIES

Part 3

Addendum

October 15, 2007

Over the years information has been received that confirms some sites, and indicates possible duplications. At least one new cemetery has been open to use and one recognized by name.

1. WEST FAMILY CEMETERY, #12, page 38

An undated map of the area indicates the Westbury railroad station. "The West station on the Beaumont, Sour Lake-Western railway is near the old place" from "Pioneer Reminiscences of Jefferson County by T.J.Russell," reprinted in YELLOWED PAGES Volume II, Number 2, May 1972.

CEMETERIES OF COLLIER'S FERRY ROAD, 1925 City Directory

@ 2008 MAPLE GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH, this site is now a part of Magnolia Cemetery and the church relocated to Magnolia and Elm.

2. Between Sheffield and Isla was the MAPLE GROVE CEMETERY. Isla now ends at the south gate to Magnolia Cemetery. This is now an extension of Magnolia Cemetery.

3. EVERGREEN CEMETERY #38, page 75 is identified as on es, beyond Prince. This cemetery is being restored and the entrance is at Delaware and Pine. THC designation

4. FOREST LAWN CEMETERY, #23, page 72 created after 1925 City Directory, office at Lucas and Pine, has plot for Spanish-American War Veterans and also a memorial for later veterans.

5. MARTHA MACK CEMETERY, #50, page 70, has been identified on a county map, north side of present Marina Drive, also by G.P.S.

6. LeBLEU CEMETERY, lost, identified by Mrs. Bertie Holmes Boodry, Jack Whitmeyer and John Walker. A part of Rosedale Community being research by Whitmeyer and Mildred S. Wright 2007

7. "BROUSSARD CEMETERY, #33, page 74 is LINCOLN MEMORIAL PARK corrected, not to be confused with a new cemetery on Highway 90 known as "Broussard Cemetery"

JEFFERSON COUNTY TEXAS CEMETERIES, Part 3

The Anthony Cemetery sign is located at Pine Street (original Colliers Ferry Road) and Gill Street. The 1912 City Directory listed PINEY WOODS CEMETERY.

The deed cited, Book 1393, pages 321-324, Anthony Cemetery Keith Hotchkiss, president, to Community Cemeteries, tracts cited, except page 324, "two acre grave yard belonging to I.R.Bordages" (Anthony Cemetery) and page 322 of deed, line 18 "old G.B. & K. C. railway" providing to "Grantee and Simmons Cemetery ... easement for the purpose of ingress over the west 16 feet of the tract.

The tracts described under "Green Lawn Cemetery" in the deed appears to be the 3 at Pine and Gill, U.S.Geological Survey map, Beaumont East revised 1960. Cemeteries 39-43 are in the Pear Orchard (Silver City Addition).

The above counting as 8-11 in addendum.

12. SPELL CEMETERY, Caswell Road, page 41 At the dedication of the Historical Marker, Mr. Everitt Campbell said one space left. Reading after Hurricane Rita 2005:
Charles Edward St. Clair May 28, 1910-August 24, 1999

13. PRATER CEMETERY, #16, page 39 Members of the Dick Dowlin Camp 1205, S.C.V. placed a confirmed burial stone for ELIJAH A. BLACKSHEAR, Pvt. Co. 4, Terry's Texas Rangers, C.S.A., 1846-May 8, 1927. This cemetery received Texas Historic Cemetery designation in 2009.

note: at some time prior to "Hurricane Rita" the students of Professor Jeff Havens, Lamar College, Port Arthur, abstracted data from cemetery records relating to the "Pioneer Section" of Greenlawn. The papers were passed to me to re-do for YELLOWED PAGES, quarterly of the Southeast Texas Genealogical and Historical Society. After "Ike", when I was ready to prepare the article they could not be found. I apologize for my careless handling of this material.

EVERGREEN CEMETERY

The cemetery served as an African-American graveyard located east of 3290 Pine Street in Beaumont, Texas. This location is northeast of the intersection of Pine and Delaware Streets. (See attached Jefferson County Appraisal District Map.)

According to a plat obtained from Rosalind Hall, great-grand daughter of Milton McGaffy, who was caretaker until his death. The Evergreen Cemetery was platted in 1912 and re-platted in 1919. The original plat contained 4.82 acres of which 3.57 acres remain as a non-working cemetery. The cemetery was platted for the owners E. Adams, M.H. Hebert, and J.R. Jacobs who purchased the property from Sam Maïdu, 29th November 1911. This deed is recorded in the Jefferson County Clerk's Office, Vol. 124 - pages 603-607. The last owner of record was Clara B. Nickerson Insell. The original plat contained 25-10 feet X 20 feet sections and 330- 20 feet X 20 feet sections. Later this number was reduced to 10-10 feet X 20 feet sections and 240 - 20 feet X 20 feet sections. These present day sections contain approximately 70 unidentified surface level vaults and 141 identified gravesites. It also contains many ground depressions indicative of unmarked graves.

There are 20 military tombstones in good repair. The cemetery served as a burial for paupers, criminals, and other wards of Jefferson County.

Five tombstones contain a professionally etched emblem of a fraternal organization that could not be identified. The emblem contains the letters MT3, V'sA and names of the following chambers of the organization, Riddle Chambers-3585, Beaumont, Texas; Silver Leaf Chambers-4770, Galveston, Texas; Bradley Chambers-2605, Beaumont, Texas; Lone Star Chambers-3309, Beaumont, Texas; and Queen of the Neches Chambers-4791, Beaumont, Texas.

The oldest identifiable tombstone belongs to Nettie Roach, born 1861-died October 27, 1900. The tombstone is a sculptured cement log standing on a base 6 to 8 inches in height laying on the base is a dead bird with its wing up-stretched against the log.

Dear Friend and Supporter:

You are invited to come out and support your veterans as Evergreen Cemetery Foundation will host its third annual Veteran's Day Celebration on Saturday, November 10, 2007, at 3290 Pine St., from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. There is a spirit of patriotic duty and commitment that signifies all military forces. The American heritage and mission of the military have always been to pursue, conquer, and take over. These brave men and women are defenders of freedom for all humanity. In Evergreen Cemetery, there are 21 veterans consisting of Buffalo soldiers, World War I & II soldiers, and Korean soldiers.

We are honored to have as our guest speaker Senior Warden Reginald Goings of the Gist State Jail, Beaumont, Texas. Warden Goings served as the Assistant Warden from 1999-2004 and was selected to serve as Senior Warden later in 2004. Warden Goings and his inmates were very instrumental in the clean up of the cemetery after the devastation of Hurricane Rita. We are also honored to have as guests Professor W.W. Johns of Project R.E.S.P.E.C.T., Inc., of Houston, Texas, a non-profit group dedicated to protect abandoned and neglected ethnic cemeteries, and Mr. Austin Berry, Chairman of the Southeast Texas Veterans Service Group. Other guests will be veterans that served in the Vietnam War and Desert Storm, along with some members of the VFW Association.

Lunch will be served and the public is welcomed. We look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Sandra Wilturner

LOST

A lost cemetery in the Rosedale section of Beaumont was first identified to compiler by Mrs. Bertie (Holmes) Boodry, later confirmed by John H. Walker, both deceased. Both said it would have been in the path of the EastTex Freeway. In research the Rosedale community, Mr. L.J. (Jack) Whitmeyer did a sketch map from his mormory of the location and identified it as "LeBleu Cemetery."

The LeBleu family is identified in THE STORY OF BEAUMONT by Florence Stratton, re-printed in Beaumont, Texas 1977 by Mrs. Mary M. Withers editor of "Yellowed Pages" publication of the Southeast Texas Genealogical and Historical Society.

The progenitor of the American line was Colie LeBleu, one of the company with LaFayette. She identifies him as the great-great grandfather of Mrs. Charles J. Chaison. The 1870 published transcription of the Federal Census lists: Chaison, F age 30, wife Clara, two children, Charles 4 and William 2 and I have noted "married 9 May 1861 Clara Baldwin)

The 1880 Federal Census as printed in "Yellowed Pages", Vol. XIV No. 2, page 12 (Summer 1984) has followed by:

Landry, Erastus	13
Robt. Emmet	10
Ida	8

The China Cemetery has a Joseph LeBleu, died May 23, 1947

Ms. Stratton identifies Frank LeBleu as the one who settled in Beaumont. The book was not written as a genealogical source and is difficult to align.

PIONEER REMINISCENCES OF JEFFERSON COUNTY by T.J. Russell, a compilation of his columns in BEAUMONT JOURNAL, re-printed by the S.E.T.G. & H.S., 1986, page 99 identifies Mrs. Ras Landry as the daughter of J.B. Langham.

Ras Landry was sheriff of Jefferson County From "Jefferson County Marriages" Vol II, No. 3, page 152:
#989 Landry, Erastus R. - Mrs. Alestine LeBleu 11 December 1883.

When electricity was extended to Rosedale 1926 (?) Ras Landry was one of the landowners granting right to run line on his property.

COMMISSIONER ED MOORE

BEAUMONT, TEXAS 77701

This letter is in reference to an old black cemetery originally named Lincoln Burial Park established on 10 acres of land about 1930. The location is on LaBelle Road approximately 4900 feet south of intersection Frint and LaBelle (towards the golf course). The present name of the cemetery is called Broussards Cemetery.

Last week I noticed someone had used machinery to clear a path on the burial site. I noticed a head stone was moved and also a lawn crypt. This clearly looks like someone has committed an offense under Section 711.0311 of the Texas Health and Safety Code. Under subsection C, a person commits an offense if the person acts without proper legal authority and knowingly:

- (1) defaces, vandalizes, injures, or removes a gravestone, monument, or other structure commemorating a deceased person or group of persons, whether located within or outside of a cemetery.

According to the opinion I received from the Texas Attorney General's office, the Texas Health and Safety Code grants cities and counties with authority to monitor cemeteries within their respective jurisdictions.

Section 713.009. Local Possession and Control of Unkept or Abandoned Cemetery.

- (a) A municipality with a cemetery inside the municipality's boundaries may, by resolution, take possession and control of the cemetery on behalf of the public if the cemetery threatens or endangers public health, safety, comfort, and welfare.

From the previous phone calls I have made to various governmental offices to get this area cleaned up, I'm always given the incorrect information that this cemetery is a private cemetery. This is incorrect. As stated by the Beaumont Court of Appeals in 1925, the law contemplates two classes of graveyards; public and private. Private cemeteries are used only by a family or small portion of the community. I can assure you that I have a relative buried at Lincoln Park and it is a public cemetery with no access.

Also, I'd like to thank Michael who is the supervisor on Boyt Road. He and I kept missing each other with our return phone calls. I truly wish to see this burial ground cleaned up and be recognized once again after so many years of being ignored and forgotten.

Sincerely,

Robert Hunter

The stories that families tell about themselves become the framework upon which their children build their lives.

One Beaumont family rose from the bondage of slavery to produce entrepreneurs, educators and a minister who pastored a Vidor church.

Charles Jones remembers sitting raptly at grandmother Bertha Lee's knee as she told him stories about her grandparents and their progress in life from slaves to landowners.

For the 62-year-old retired school counselor, his heritage was something to live up to.

"I would never let her see me do anything wrong," Jones said of his beloved grandmother.

It's a legacy he strives to pass on to his two sons, who love hearing stories almost as much

Agnes Hayes says the family cemetery her grandfather, Edward Prater, started so long ago was at least four times larger than the plot of ground left undisturbed last week when bulldozers began clearing land for a new Ziebart Auto and Truck Rustproofing Co. facility between the 600 block of Concord and the Eastex Freeway.

"Not many people knew it was out here," he said. The cemetery is overgrown with brush and Sinclair says he intends to see that it is kept mowed and taken care of. He said no gravesites were destroyed when bulldozers cleared away the rest of the property for the new 5,000-square-foot building and the parking lot around it.

Martha Tucker, who operates the

In 1972, Eagle Scout John Knight, who had been a student at the day school, lead a group of Scouts on a project to clean up the cemetery. He reported seeing only a dozen tombstones then.

Mildred Wright, who has compiled six volumes of cemetery inventories covering five Southeast Texas counties, inventoried the cemetery Monday and found 14 stones and a small funeral home marker.

Tucker said she believes the small metal marker was moved from another part of the cemetery — a part plowed over to make way for the parking lot — and placed in another row of stones.

It sits beside the stone marking the grave of the baby daughter of J.J. and T.E. Ballard. She died in February of 1888 and her grave is the oldest marked grave in the cemetery.

Her father's grave is on the other side of the illegible metal marker.

The youngest marked grave in the cemetery is one of Clair Meyer, who Called the Prater Cemetery after the Prater family that started it, the cemetery seems to have been a family cemetery used mainly by the Prater, Collier, Ballard and Odom families, which Hayes says were all related to each other.

Included in the cemetery is the grave of John Collier, born in 1844 and died in 1918. He is believed to be the man who operated Collier's Ferry on the Neches River at the end of what is now Pine Street.

Hayes says her grandfather bought 750 acres of land where she now lives and where the cemetery is a century or so ago for "a dollar or 50 cents an acre."

Although Sinclair says the cemetery will be maintained better than it has for a long time and will be more accessible than it has ever been, Hayes says the amount of cemetery left "is nothing compared to the whole cemetery."

She says the Prater Cemetery used to cover a half acre.

When Edward Prater started the cemetery, his homestead was far out in the country from Beaumont. Now it's visible to drivers on the Eastex Freeway near the Crow Road exit.
